Feature Destination:

This month, rather than feature a specific destination, we have chosen to feature road trips. Road trips are a wonderful way to explore various destinations that are closer to home. While one usually associates far-off, exotic destinations with travel, there are also fabulous things to see and do locally. The AbilityTrip team has posted a variety of accessible road trip pictures to AbilityTrip's Facebook page. Please visit the page to enjoy the extensive photo gallery. And, if the pictures help stimulate a road trip idea, visit the AbilityTrip website to learn more about accessibility of the destinations along the way. As always, remember to revisit the AbilityTrip website often, as content is updated and expanded regularly.

Please submit your favorite travel photo(s) to: admin@abilitytrip.com to have your travel picture featured in an upcoming newsletter.

AbilityTip of the month:

Individuals who have recently sustained a life altering injury or disease are often reluctant to travel because they think they're no longer able to do so. Traveling can be a very relaxing activity if planned right and good for one's psyche and overall health. Anyone can travel, even if it's just within one's own state or locale.

In the News...:

Tons of great events going on in the month of July with AbilityTrip and the community.

On Thursday, July 15th AbilityTrip will be attending the Access Chicago event, located in Chicago at Navy Pier, Festival Hall A. Stop by the AbilityTrip booth to say "hi" and learn more about traveling with a disability.

We are excited to announce AbilityTrip's first annual networking event, taking place on July 16th at Citizen Bar in Chicago, Illinois. At the event, attendants can meet the AbilityTrip staff, fellow members, and other companies and agencies that are involved in the community. We will be meeting out in the patio area - it should be a fabulous day and a lot of fun, so don't miss this event!

On July 24th, come cheer the AbilityTrip team on at the Ability Pride Parade in Chicago. AbilityTrip is a proud sponsor of the parade, and the team looks forward to marching. At the conclusion of the parade, the AbilityTrip team will host a booth with information about the website and accessible travel.
